

The Man Who Works Harder Than Me

By Reece Carter

1-

- 1)Who understands the catch better than me?
- 2)The connection between quarterback and receiver.
- 3)Who understands getting in the end zone, better than me?
- 4)Eating up yards,
- 5)Setting up defensive backs.
- 6)Who understands strapping on the pads better than me?
- 7)The passion for the game.
- 8)Playing for the name on the front of the jersey before the name on the back.
- 9)Brothers make brothers stronger,
- 10)iron sharpens iron.
- 11)Who understands what everyone else sees at game time better than me?
- 12)Friday night lights,
- 13)The closest we get to real life super heroes.
- 14)Who understands the crowd roaring like lions better than me?
- 15)Who understands a team depending on you better than me?
- 16)Who understands success better than me?
- 17) Not me.

2-

- 18)Who knows failure better than me?
- 19)A dropped ball,
- 20)Failure to convert.
- 21)Who knows being cut from a team better than me?
- 22)Who knows what happens off the field better than me?
- 23)Sacrifice,
- 24)The grind.
- 25)Who knows letting those around you down better than me?
- 26)Who knows being told you're not big enough better than me?
- 27)Not fast enough,
- 28)Not good enough.
- 29)Who knows going against all odds better than me?
- 30)Being competitive.
- 31)Who knows the ups and downs of the game better than me?
- 32)Who knows fighting for your spot better than me?
- 33)Who knows continuing to climb the mountain even after it pushes you back, better than me?

34)Overcoming the struggle of beating the man in front of you, no matter what.

34)Pure will to win,

36)like will to breathe.

37)So who knows football better than me?

38)Only the man who works harder than me.

Similes - lines 14 and 36

Metaphors- lines 10 and 33

Parallelism- Interrogative sentences and short, two line, sentence statements.

Repetition- "Who understands" and "Who knows"